

Spinoza Tercentenary Celebration

To be held under the auspices of the
INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

at

All Souls Unitarian Church

1453 North Alabama Street

Indianapolis, Indiana

Sunday, November 27, at 2:30 P.M.

PROGRAM

Organ Prelude	Mrs. C. A. Brockway
Words of Welcome	Dr. F. S. C. Wicks, Pastor All Souls Unitarian Church
Selected Readings from Spinoza	Prof. D. S. Robinson, Presi- dent, Indiana Philosophical Association
Offertory—Organ selection
An offering will be taken during the playing of the offertory to help defray the expenses of the meeting.
The Background of Spinoza's Thought	Rabbi Milton Steinberg, Cong- regation Beth-El-Zedek
Solo	Miss Charlotte Lieber
Spinoza's Doctrine of the Blessed Life	Prof. E. L. Schaub, Editor of The Monist and Head of the Philosophy Department of Northwestern University
Postlude

Reception in honor of Prof. Schaub in the church parlors immediately following the program

Baruch de Spinoza was born at Amsterdam on November 24, 1632. His tercentenary is being celebrated in this country, in England, and on the continent of Europe during this year.