

5 143

Indiana Philosophical Association

Minutes - 3/23/43

The Indiana Philosophical Association met on Tuesday, March 23, 1943, at Indiana University for a special Spring meeting in connection with the Mallon Powell Lectures.

The program was as follows:

1:00--Luncheon and address:

Speaker: Professor Charles E. Merriam, eighth Powell Lecturer
Subject: "National Resources Planning"
Place: Bowman's restaurant, 422 South Walnut, Bloomington

2:15-3:30--Discussion:

Discussion leaders:
Professor C. D. W. Hildebrand, Department of Philosophy, DePaul University
Professor Velorus Mertz, School of Education, Indiana University
Subject: "Democracy, Education, and the War."
(It is suggested that members read the articles in the A. A. U. P. Bulletin, No. 5, December, 1942.)
Place: Bowman's restaurant

4:00--Powell Lecture

Speaker: Professor Charles E. Merriam
Subject: "Sovereignty". (This is the second of the four lectures of the series. The general topic is "Public and Private Government.")
Place: The auditorium of the Business and Economics Building, Indiana University.

Thirteen members and five guests attended.