

Joint Meeting

of

Indiana

Philosophical Association

and

Philosophy Section,

Ohio College

Association

EARLHAM COLLEGE, Richmond, Indiana

April 13 and 14, 1951

Program

Friday, April 13 — 2:30 P. M. (c.s.t.)

Carpenter Hall

Msgr. John J. Doyle, Marian College,
presiding

1. INTRODUCTORY REMARKS
2. EXISTENTIALISM: ITS POSITIVE CONTRIBUTIONS
Hazel E. Barnes, University of Toledo
3. LEIBNIZ AND HIS MANY WORLDS
N. P. Stallknecht, Indiana University
4. IS THERE A CHRISTIAN PHILOSOPHY?
Robert G. Remsberg, Wittenberg College

7:00 P. M.

Association Room, EARLHAM HALL

DINNER MEETING AND DISCUSSION

Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, Earlham College,
presiding

Speaker, Dean Walter S. Gamertsfelder,
Ohio University

THE TASK OF PHILOSOPHY IN A TIME LIKE THIS

Program

Saturday, April 14 — 9:15 A. M.

Carpenter Hall

Dr. William H. Reither, Ohio State University,
presiding

1. THE "PHENOMENOLOGY" OF DUNS SCOTUS
John Glanville, University of Notre Dame
2. ARABIC PHILOSOPHY IN TENTH CENTURY BAGHDAD
Herbert F. Thomson, Hanover College
3. THE COLD WAR, RELIGION, AND THE LIBERAL COLLEGES
Fritz Marti, Marietta College

11:30

Business sessions of the Indiana Philosophical Association and the Philosophy Section, Ohio College Association, in rooms to be designated.

The price of the dinner on Friday will be $1.50. Each member is urged to return the enclosed card to make a reservation so the host college may know how many should be provided for.

At the Leland Hotel in Richmond, rooms with bath for single occupancy begin at $4.00; double rooms begin at $3.50 for each occupant. Members of the visiting associations may make reservations by writing directly to the Leland Hotel. They are requested to mention the fact that they are expecting to attend this joint meeting.