

THE INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

Fall Meeting
October 10, 1953
(Saturday)

WAR MEMORIAL

Indianapolis, Indiana

Morning Session: Both Senior and Junior Associations: 10:00 A.M. to 12:00

"Recent Works of Gabriel Marcel"
Newton P. Stallknecht of Indiana University

"The Pragmatism of Josiah Royce"
J. Harry Cotton of Wabash College

"The Epistemology of Wittgenstein"
George Kimball Flochmann of Illinois Southern University

Luncheon: Both Associations, 12:15 - 1:15 at the Athenaeum
($1.80 including tip)

Business Meetings: 1:30 - 2:00 P.M.

Afternoon Session: The Senior Association

"Vico and his Philosophy of History"
Robert Caponigri of the University of Notre Dame

"Toynbee's Philosophy of History"
Fritz Neumann of Roosevelt College, Chicago

Afternoon Session: The Junior Association

"John Dewey" by Robert E. Simpson of Butler University

Discussion Leaders: Richard Spurney and John Tich,
University of Notre Dame

Meal reservations should be made immediately on the enclosed card. For reservations or further information write GORDON H. CLARK, BUTLER UNIVERSITY, INDIANAPOLIS, or the Association Secretary, LEWIS HENNIGAR, ANDERSON COLLEGE, ANDERSON.