

FINAL NOTICE OF AUTUMN MEETING
INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

TIME; Saturday, October 12, 1968

PLACE: Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana

PROGRAM:

9:00 A.M. Registration and coffee.
(Lobby of Student Union)

10:00 A.M. Paper: "What is a Perspective?"
by Marcus Riedel, Indiana State University
(Room AB)

12:00 Smorgasbord Luncheon (West Hall)

1:00 P.M. Business Meeting (Room AB)

1:30 P.M. Paper: "The Ego and its Body: An Essay in the Metaphysics of Identity"
by William Hasker, Huntington College

FURTHER INFORMATION:

Time: Valparaiso will still be on Central ~~Standard~~ Daylight Time.

Location: Valparaiso is located on U.S. 30 about 55 miles south east of Chicago. The East Campus borders the highway, Memorial Chapel being easily visible. The Student Union is located on Union St. several hundred feet west of the Chapel. There is ample provision for parking.

Food: The price of the Smorgasbord Luncheon (a specialty of the Valparaiso University Food Service) is $3.00 and well worth it. Some may wish to eat more inexpensively in the Union Cafeteria.

Lodging: Those who wish to stay over night may desire accommodations at the large Holiday Inn complex on highway 30 just west of town.

Phone: 219-462-4173