

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SPRING MEETING, APRIL 12, 1969

PURDUE UNIVERSITY, WEST LAFAYETTE, INDIANA

The meeting room for all senior division events in Room 310 Memorial Center.

The junior division will meet separately from 10:15 to 12 noon in Room 307 Memorial Center. Please assure your students that there is no registration fee, and encourage them to attend.

* 9:30 - 10:15 Coffee and doughnuts

10:15 - 12:00 Morning paper: "Hume's View of the Self in Society",
Professor Leonard Clark, Earlham College.

LUNCH: The Sagamore Room, on the second floor of the Memorial Union, will reserve a special area where philosophers may sit together. They serve a very nice cafeteria style luncheon for $1.50 (dessert is 25¢ extra).

1:15 - 3:30 Business meeting, followed immediately by
Afternoon paper: "Socrates' Reply to Glaucon",
Professor Paul D. Eisenberg, Indiana University.

Abstracts of both morning and afternoon papers are enclosed.

On the enclosed campus map the Memorial Center is building #70, and the Memorial Union is #88.

PARKING: There are a few parking meters just South of the Memorial Center. These need to be "fed" to last till 11 o'clock - after that parking is free on campus. If there is no space at these meters, use the parking garage, building #42 on the map. Parking garage 20¢ first hour, 10¢ each add'l hour, and $1 per day maximum.

Since Morgan says nothing about "coffee and donuts", we might change this to "Reception"
