

FIRST JOINT MEETING OF INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

and

INDIANA ACADEMY OF RELIGION

November 15, 1975

at

Butler University
4600 Sunset Avenue
Atherton Center
Indianapolis, Indiana
(4600 North/600 West--6 Blocks West of Meridian Street on 46th Street; north side of Indianapolis)

- 9:00 AM Coffee and Doughnuts
- 10:00 AM "Identifying God" (In theology one of the problems is providing reference for the word 'God.' How does one identify God so that others will know what one is talking about. This paper argues that the model of personal agency provides a basis for meaningful discourse about God.)
-- Robert H. King, DePauw University
Commentators: Norman Widdiger, Valparaiso University
John Beversluis, Butler University
- 11:30 AM Business Meeting
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 PM "C. S. Peirce: His Concepts of God and Religion"
-- Mary Mahowald, IUPUI
Commentators: Herbert W. Cassel, Indiana Central Univ.
- 2:00 PM "The Theory of Evil as Privation."
-- G. Stanley Kane, Miami University (Ohio)
Commentator: James P. Sterba, University of Notre Dame

