

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

FALL MEETING - OCTOBER 30, 1976

Indiana University at Kokomo

Program

- 9:30 A.M. Coffee and Doughnuts
- 10:00 "What We're Taught"
 --Milton Fisk, Indiana University
- 11:15 "Freedom and Moral Choice: An Ambiguity Uncovered"
 --Tomis Kapitan, Indiana University
- 12:00 P.M. Lunch
- 1:15 Business Meeting
- 1:30 "Abortion, Deformed Fetuses, and the Omega Pill"
 --Leonard Fleck, Indiana University at South Bend
- 2:30 "Personal Identity and the Problem of Evil"
 --William Hasker, Huntington College

This meeting is open to all persons interested in the teaching and study of philosophy, including undergraduate philosophy students. There is no registration fee. A map of the Kokomo campus is included on the back of this program.